

Chandlers Cottage

Early May Newsletter

Hi Everyone,

I hope you are all well, and for those that visited us at the Australian Quilt Convention (AQC), thanks so much and I hope you had a great time!

This month is just as exciting and eventful. I'm off to Kansas City to the Spring Wholesale Quilt Market where we get to see everything that's new, exciting and coming our way later in the year. I promise to get back to blogging this month so you can see what to look forward to too!

In the Shop & Studio

Also this month, we are starting to do a little DIY renovation!

After six years of hanging quilts, moving quilts, moving quilt rods and goodness knows what else, it's time to putty, paint and start again!

We also need to make a little office space for Leesa Chandler Designs. Don't forget, you can now purchase my patterns from shops all over Australia. Check out our store locator on the www.leesachandlerdesigns.com website for your closest stockist, or if you want to support your local shop, just ask them to contact us and order in the patterns you would like for you!

So, with a paint job, rearrangement and carpet clean on the "to do" list, we have a lot of fabric to move! Then at the end of the month, all our new collections arrive, including Robert Kaufmans Imperial Collection, Imperial Fusions and loads more.

You know what that means, don't you?!
